

Global shortfall

Key populations and their partners accounted for more than half of all new HIV infections globally in 2018.

Data from the 2020 report 'Fast-Track or Off Track: How insufficient funding for key populations jeopardises ending AIDS by 2030'

